First I will find an umbrella.

I will run, run, run

to find an umbrella."

Why did Little  get under the box?

Why was the box upside down?

Little  found an umbrella.

She found lots of umbrellas.

She put one umbrella over her head. Guess what she did with the others?

Just then the sun came out.

Little put the umbrella down.

But then the rain came down again.

Little put the umbrella up.

Then she saw some underclothes.

They were getting wet.

She took the underclothes
off the line.

She put them into her box.

Little  took the underclothes upstairs.

She put them away.

"Now I can play under my umbrella," she said.

She went out in the rain.

“I can run through a

mud puddle,”

she said. “What fun!”

Then Little U found an ugly duckling.

The ugly duckling was grumpy.

She put the ugly duckling

into her box.

"Do not be grumpy," she said.
"You will grow up to be beautiful."

Just then her uncle came by.

Little gave her uncle
an umbrella.

Next, an umpire came by.

"Can you help us?" he said.

"We are playing baseball in the rain. We need umbrellas."

Little  said, "I have a box full of umbrellas."

She gave the umpire an umbrella.

Then she gave everyone

an umbrella.
